2 MR. MILLER: Or his re-election.

3 MR. MARTINEAU: My own inclination would 4 be that it should apply as long as he continues in 5 office. I think the idea of the Judge's term expiring
6 really is not a valid one. Under the concept we have 7 in this, he really is in office until he is retired or 8 he is booted out by the electorate and the function 9 of the term which is ten years is not really that his 10 term expires but that really he must go before the 11 electorate each ten years to be continued in office.
12 This is my own personal view of it.

13 MR. MILLER: I was thinking under the 14 present Constitution that the present Judges, I don't 15 think we would owe them obligation to a salary if it 16 was in excess of what the new Constitution called for 17 after the term for which they were elected has expired.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: That's part of the very 19 thorny problem the Committee has to wrestle with.
20 Mr. Della.

21 MR. DELLA: Mr. Martineau, the unions have
